

Southeastern Squash Racquets Association

March 2005

Hello SESRA:

SESRA'S NATIONAL CHAMPIONS: GOUGH in 65s and FABBRI in 3.0s

March continues to be all about the USSRA Nationals. Atlanta sent, by my count, more than 20 folks to Boston in the skill levels and age groups, and they played beautifully. By Saturday, the draws were down to the semis and eight SESRAns were still playing: Michael Gough in the 65s, Tom Rumpler in the 50s, Diniar Alikhan in the 45s, Bill Villari in the 40s, Andre Maur in the 35s, Oscar Arenas in the 4.0s, Dave Bridges faced Martin Daniel in the 3.5s, and Frank Fabbri in the 3.0s. Maur, Bridges, Gough and Fabbri moved to finals and Gough and Fabbri came home National Champs!

Here's the full list of participants:

Diniar Alikhan
Oscar Arenas
Bill Basnett
Mark Bertram
Leslie Blythe
Dave Bridges
Bob Burton
Ashesh Choksi
John Collar

Martin Daniel
Justin Daniels
Bobby Elliott
Frank Fabbri
Paul Fairleigh
Kelly Garges
Michael Gough
Wayne Lidman
Andre Maur

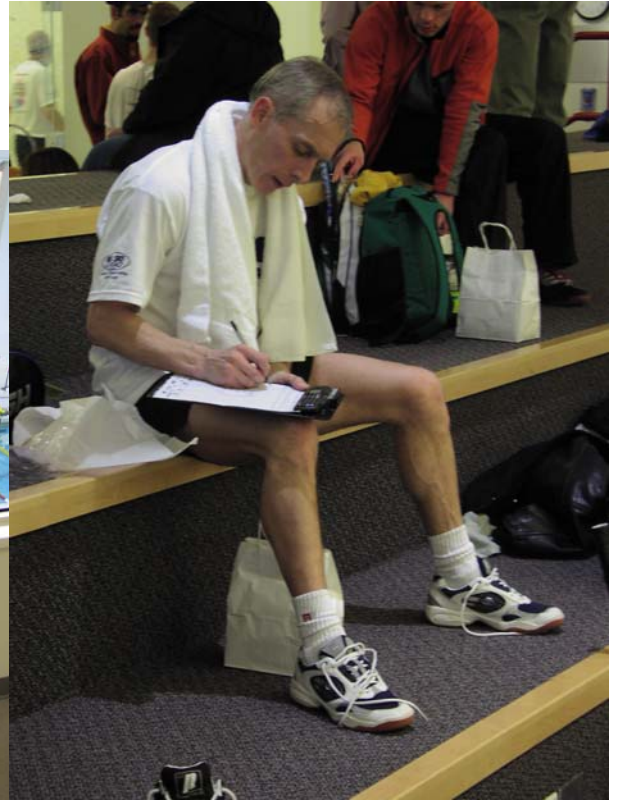

Michelle Quibell
Alladin Mitha
Tom Rumpler
Bill Villari
Edus Warren
Jim Wellman
Plus friends and former Atlanteans.

But then, a few pictures are worth a thousand words:

By the way, Andre did come through with a photo of his Ireland 40s championship:

The winners of the Irish National Championships: Ladies: Madeline Perry, 40s (Old Mens): Andre Maur and Open (Young Men's): Liam Kenny.
Andre beat Keith Bullen in the final 3-1.

Hope this continues to be of interest.

Best,

Bob