Charleston Squash Club Doubles Invitational

Dec. 3-5, Charleston Squash Club, Charleston S.C. Contact pro Matt Jenson for details at mjsquash@gmail.com.

Jesters Southeastern College Team Invitational set for Jan. 21-23, 2011

The Jesters Club, together with Southeastern Squash and Dunlop, are supporting the development of college squash in the Southeast by offering for the fourth year a round-robin venue for established, emerging and club teams. This annual event at Midtown Athletic Club and The Westminster Schools is intended to support Collegiate Squash Association play in the Southeast, thereby creating exposure to intercollegiate squash that will foster excitement around establishing college clubs and supporting emerging teams in the southeast.

We are hopeful that Emory University will have a team this year and University of North Carolina has indicated it will attend. 2010 participants: Vanderbilt University, Tulane University, University of the South (Sewanee), College of Charleston, The Westminster Schools, Porter Gaud.

Assiante signing “Run to the Roar” at PDC

Trinity coach Paul Assiante, whose Trinity Bantams have the longest winning streak in college athletics, will be at the Piedmont Driving Club in early December to sign copies of his book, Run To The Roar: Coaching To Overcome Fear, co-authored by Jim Zug.

A synopsis from Flipkart.com:

“The winningest coach in NCAA history shares his lessons on building and coaching teams of champions. For 202 consecutive dual matches over the past eleven years, the Trinity men's squash team has gone unbeaten. No other team in any collegiate sport has achieved the same sustained level of greatness. "Run to the Roar" is the story of a coach who succeeds in recruiting young men from around the world, getting them to work as a team, managing personalities, calming egos, and encouraging daily effort and focus under pressure. The book's framework is the finals of the 2009 national intercollegiate team championships. As Trinity scrapes out a 5-4 victory over Princeton, Assiante imparts the insights and experiences that have made him a master coach. In stark contrast to his Trinity dynasty, Assiante also openly discusses the deep emotional turmoil he faces as the parent of a heroin addict. "Run to the Roar" is not just a book about squash; it is an invaluable and unique reflection on mentoring, leadership, and parenting from one of the most innovative and successful coaches in collegiate athletics.”

If you have an interest in attending, contact Mike Davison.

Juniors readying for another college season:

SESRA has a long tradition of sending unexpectedly good squash players to top ranked schools around the country. As the college squash season starts, it's interesting to note who is playing where...Brian Warner at Amherst (18), Cooper Veysey at Hamilton (21), Lizzie Warner at Bowdoin (21), Derek Rowley at Stanford (22), Alex Hoffman at UPenn (9), Gibbs Cullen at Williams (8) and from North Carolina, Adrian Ostbye at Western Ontario (8). Numbers are preseason team ranking.

Past Events:

Danielle Maur given W. Stewart Brauns, Jr. Award by U.S. Squash

In September, Danielle Maur was given the W. Stewart Brauns, Jr. Award for making substantial administrative contributions to the game of squash by U.S. Squash. Danielle, who is currently the National Squash & Racquetball Director at Life Time Fitness, is responsible for squash development and programming across Life Time Fitness' 150 squash courts nationally, including four courts in the greater Atlanta area. Measured in courts, Life Time Fitness is the largest squash club in the world.

Since 2008, when Maur created and took on the National Director role at Life Time, participation in squash has grown substantially, with Life Time players taking part under the instruction of more than 20 full and part time professionals. With more than 1.2 million members, Life Time has been able to promote squash broadly, and helped introduce thousands of people to the game. The Brauns award was last given in 2008 to Jahangir Khan.

Lali Szoke takes Tequila Don Ramon 4.0 consi's

Cary, N.C. player Lali Szoke traveled to Arizona in September to participate in the Tequila Don Ramon Southwest Open. Lali dropped his first round match (largely due to altitude, I'm told) to eventual third place finisher Jim Franklin in overtime, (6),4,(6),7,11, then went on to win three straight for the consi title.

Reminder of Charlie Johnson's support of SESRA:

“We Support Squash,
We Play Squash,
We Know Squash!”

SouthEastern Squash

Charlie Johnson's Squash Shop, located in Dayton Ohio at the Dayton Squash Center and online at www.cjsquash.com, is one of America's best full service squash pro shops. Charlie has played and coached squash for over 20 years, sponsored tournaments around the country, including SESRA's popular Grand Masters and Dragon Doc tournaments, and cjsquash.com was the FIRST ONLINE squash pro shop: providing access to a large inventory of squash equipment on the web since 1996 when Al Gore invented the internet!

Charlie has been a US Squash board member, past officer, and he and CJSquash.com have many close friends in the Southeastern Squash Community. To recognize the longstanding special relationship with SESRA, CJSquash.com is offering a 10% discount to current SESRA members when they place an order over $75 online. Members simply use coupon code SESRA2010 when checking out and the discount will be applied to your order.

Have a great season and I hope to see you at the Grand Masters!
